

HOW TO READ YOUR SCORE REPORT
FOR REVISED (SEPT. 2013) SCHOOL BUILDING LEADER (SBL) ASSESSMENT

General Information

This report provides your scores for the New York State Teacher Certification Examinations™ (NYSTCE®) School Building Leader (SBL) assessment that you took on the indicated test date. For each test you took, the report specifies the minimum passing score, whether or not you met the minimum passing score, your total test score, and your general performance on the selected-response questions and performance tasks for each competency of the test.

Total Score and Test Status

The total test score is based on the number of selected-response questions answered correctly and the score(s) on the performance tasks on the test. The minimum passing score for each test was established by the New York State Commissioner of Education with input from New York State educators and is designed to reflect the minimum level of knowledge and skills required to be an effective educator in New York State public schools.

To achieve consistency in reporting, total test scores are converted to a common scale. These scaled scores range from 400 to 600, with a scaled score of 520 representing the minimum passing score. If your test status is reported as "Pass," your total scaled score is 520 or higher. If your test status is reported as "Did Not Pass," your total scaled score is below 520. The total score is reported to you in order to provide information that you can use, along with the information on the rest of the report, in preparing to retake the test.

Candidates who score within 0.5 standard error of measurement (SEM) of the passing score on a required content knowledge NYSTCE will have an (*) after their Total Score. These candidates may be eligible to apply for a certification exam waiver. The application and further information about the waiver process is available on the NYSTCE website.

Use of Test Scores

Candidates are not obligated to provide potential employers with copies of NYSTCE score reports.

Detailed Performance Information

Performance indices are provided for the selected-response questions and performance tasks of the test. These indices are designed to help you understand your areas of strength and weakness.

Performance Index Definitions

- ++++ Performance on the skills and knowledge is well above the level represented by the minimum passing score.
- +++ Performance on the skills and knowledge is just at or above the level represented by the minimum passing score.
- ++ Performance on the skills and knowledge is just below the level represented by the minimum passing score.
- + Performance on the skills and knowledge is well below the level represented by the minimum passing score.

Reporting of Scores

Your test scores have been reported to the New York State Education Department (NYSED), where they will be added to your certification application file automatically. Keep this official score report in your permanent records, as you will not be able to obtain a replacement copy from NYSED. Your test scores have also been reported to the New York State institution that you indicated when you registered, unless you provided written notification when you registered that your scores should not be released to that institution.

Retaking a Test

Candidates who do not pass a test may retake it as often as necessary until a passing score is achieved. Consult the NYSTCE website at www.nystce.nesinc.com for information about registering.
